How Tourette's Syndrome Impacts My…

Fill in the gaps

1. To _____ [zapobiec] the criticism, the artist explained the controversial elements of her work beforehand.
2. It's unacceptable to _____ [oczerniać kogoś] someone's hard work just because you disagree with their methods.
3. There's a widespread _____ [błędne przekonanie o czymś/kimś] about the new policy being mandatory when it's actually optional.
4. The mechanic was able to _____ [wykluczyć coś] engine failure as the cause of the car trouble.
5. Receiving a scholarship _____ [zdjęło ciężar] off her family.
6. He showed _____ [powściągliwość] by calmly walking away from the heated argument.
7. The rules about curfews _____ [dotyczyć kogoś] all residents of the dormitory.
8. Her dark outfit made her _____ [nierzucający się w oczy] in the crowd, while his bright yellow jacket was easily noticeable.
9. Despite his best efforts, he proved _____ [nieudolny] at handling the complex negotiations.
10. The constant notifications on her phone became a major _____ [rozproszenie uwagi] during her work hours.
11. The teacher reminded the students that using _____ [przekleństwa] in class was against school policy… although very tempting when he was checking their essays.
12. He decided to _____ [przyjąć czyjąś propozycję] her offer to review his resume before applying for jobs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS