

Third Conditional

Uses:

- The person is imagining a different past.
- Imaginary situation that did not happen.
- To show the consequences of the IF clause.

If + Past perfect + would have + past participle

Examples:

- 1) If you had studied, you would have passed the exam.
- 2) If I hadn't been sick, I would have gone to your party.
- 3) If we had left earlier, we wouldn't have missed the plane.

Third Conditional

Going BACK in TIME to the PAST

What would you have done differently?
