Vocabulary and Grammar Test Unit 3 Test A

1 Choose the correct answers.

Edible packaging

Imagine you can drink a glass of cola and then [1]package / produce / eat the bottle just like any other item of food. Not possible? Well, edible packaging might soon be a reality. In the UK, people [2]grow / throw away / refrigerate 6.6m tonnes of food and drink packaging every year. One company is [3]recycling / producing / packaging WikiCells, a sort of balloon that keeps liquids inside, but that you can later eat. You might not even have to [4]recycle / eat / refrigerate your drinks to keep them cold. This also means that there won't be any need to [5]grow / transport / recycle all the paper and plastic that comes with food packaging.

2 Complete the text with the words :

carbon waste friendly rubbish greenhouse recycling efficient warming

Help the planet and become eco-[1]_____ !

- Reduce food [2]_____ and stop global [3]_____ by buying fruit and vegetables from local farmers.
- Read labels on the things that you buy to check if any of the packaging can be taken to a [4]_____ centre. Do the same with other things that can be reused. Take the things that can't be reused to the [5]_____ dump.
- Reduce your [6]_____ footprint by walking or cycling, instead of taking the bus or driving. This will also help to reduce the amount of [7]_____ gases released into the air.
- Use energy-[8]_____ light bulbs and other equipment to save power.

3 Match the containers 1–6 to the correct food items A–F.

1	jar	A	water, vinegar
2	tube	B	milk, eggs
3	packet	C	crisps, biscuits
4	bottle	D	toothpaste, cream
5	box	E	jam, coffee
6	carton	F	tissues, chocolates

4 Complete the sentences with phrases in exercise 3.

1 I can't open the _____ and there is nothing else to put on my sandwich!

2 Can you bring something sweet for the party, but not chocolate? How about a _____ ?

3 I don't like how this feels on my teeth. Could you get a different _____ ?

4 Don't forget to bring a _____ to the fitness class. Drinking during exercise is very important.

5 Fiona was very upset and was crying all day. She used a whole _____ . 6 Craig dropped the _____ and all of them broke. There was nothing to make omelettes with.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Grammar

5 Match sentences 1–6 to a–f. Then complete the missing indefinite pronouns or adverbs.

1 Are there any vending machines in your city? _____

2 I'm really hungry. _____

3 Can you find the takeaway menu? _____

4 Do you want me to buy anything when I go to the shop? _____

5 Who gave you all these sweets? _____

6 What's for dinner? _____

a No, but I know it's here _____.

b _____. I didn't cook today.

c Yes, there are so many it feels like they are _____!

d It was _____ I don't know.

e No, we have _____.

f Did you have _____ to eat today?

6 Circle the correct answers.

Kitchen by Erik Klein Wolterink

Kitchens differ from house to house, family to family. And Dutch photographer Erik Klein Wolterink wanted to show this in his new project Keuken (Kitchen). He opened [1]any / a lot of / much cupboards, drawers and fridges and took photos of everything he saw.

So, [2]how much / how many / any differences were there between the kitchens? Well, they all look very similar on the outside, but every kitchen has [3]some / much / any things that represent the people that live there. A mother with African roots has a plastic water bottle filled with [4]a few / a little / many palm oil. A family with young children has [5]a lot of / much / many jars of Nutella, A group of female students has a very clean kitchen and just [6]a little / a lot of / a few food items. A kitchen can show just how different we all are.

7 Complete the text with who, which, when, where and whose.

Cinema snack

When you walk into a cinema, you can smell it right away. It's the food [1]_____ you have to eat during a film. It's in every cinema in almost every country ... Popcorn! 1885 is the year [2]_____ the first mobile popping machine was invented and it was Charles Cretors [3]_____ did it. But it wasn't the cinema [4]_____ eating popcorn started. It first appeared at carnivals and other fairs, and it wasn't until the 1910s [5]_____ the grand movie theatres became popular that popcorn made its way into the cinema. And then there were other people [6]_____ ideas changed the way we eat popcorn today: plain or with butter? Salted or sweet? Standard or large ... ?

LIVEWORKSHEETS