ASKING THE RIGHT QUESTIONS

Theme 1: What do you want? Describing places and things for goods and services

Goods and Services:

1. ► A good is something people want or need that can be held or touched.

2. ► A service is work people do for consumers.

A. Directions: Write the word that best completes each statement.

1. A _____ is work people do for consumers.

2. A _____ is something people want or need that can be held or touched.

BIG IDEA:

1. ► Examples of goods: shoes, computer, and umbrella.

2. ► Examples of services: lawyer, cook, and pet sitter.

B. Directions: Write the word that best completes each statement.

1. Lawyers, cooks, and pet sitters all provide _____.

2. Clothes, umbrella, and computers are all _____.

WRITING

A. Think Ahead: What are three goods a cook might need to provide his or her service?

_____

(A good is something that is intended to satisfy wants or needs of a consume)

B. Think Ahead: What service(s) could someone provide with these goods: lawn mower, gas can, wheelbarrow, and mulch?

_____

_____