The Day of the Dead

The Day of the Dead is a special holiday in Mexico. It happens every year on November 1st and 2nd. People remember and honour their family members who have died. They believe that on these days, their spirits come back to visit. Families make altars with photos, flowers, candles, and food. Bread of the Dead is a popular recipe. Some people also paint their faces to look like skeletons and dress in colourful clothes. The Day of the Dead is a happy celebration, not a sad one. It is a way to celebrate life and remember the past.

Choose the correct answer according to the reading. There is one correct option, so please, read careful.

1. Where is "The Day of the Dead" celebrated?
   a. Argentina
   b. Ecuador
   c. Mexico
   d. Panama
2. What do people remember on this holiday?
   a. People remember and honour celebrities
   b. People remember and honour their friends
   c. People remember and honour their pets
   d. People remember and honour their family members

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. What do they believe on these days?
   a. They believe that their spirits came back to visit.
   b. They believe that they came to visit
   c. They believe that they came back to scary them
   d. They believe that they do not came back to visit.
4. It happens every year on…?
   a. November 1st
   b. November 1st and 2nd.
   c. November 21st and 22nd
   d. November 30th

Read again and choose if the sentence is True or False. There is one correct option so, be careful

1. Families make altars with photos, flowers, candles, and food.
2. The Day of the Dead is not a happy celebration
3. It is a way to celebrate dead

Match the words with the correct statements

a. Bread	People dress in _____ clothes
b. colourful	_____ of the dead is a popular recipe
c. faces	Some people also paint their _____ to look like skeletons

LIVEWORKSHEETS