HANDOUT 2

VOCABULARY

1. Look at the pictures. Then discuss the questions with your classmates.

What is your dream job?

How can you get what you want?

Who has better chances to fulfill their dreams, extroverted or introverted people?

Can acting confidently help us achieve our goals? Why?

What kind of actions can make us become less respected?

Is it okay to change our goals all the time? Why?

2. Write down some of your classmates' answers. Do you agree with them? Why?

HANDOUT 3

VOCABULARY

A. Look at the following words. Are they positive or negative?

assertive, compromise, defensive, extroverted, introverted, optimistic, pessimistic, hard-working, mean, moody, polite, tidy, charismatic, dependable, devious, impulsive.

POSITIVE CONNONATION	NEGATIVE CONNONATION

B. Use the words from A for each definition below.

Someone who is not afraid to say what they want or believe .....assertive....

a. Someone who becomes angry or unhappy easily

b. Someone unkind and unpleasant, more likely to become violent

c. Someone whose plan or methods are dishonest

d. Someone who likes to keep things in the right place

e. Someone who reacts too quickly to protect themselves from criticism

f. Someone whom you can have confidence in

C. Fill in the gaps. Use the words in C.

a. His ..... tactics helped him to get the job. That's unfair.

b. The new manager is such a ..... person. You should be careful.

c. Don't get ..... Jackie. I was only joking!

d. ..... people are too difficult to deal with. One day they are all cheerful, but out of the blue they frown upon everything.

e. All employees must be responsible for keeping their desks neat and .....

f. Companies look for ..... employees who work independently.