1 Listen and read. Why didn't Kylie see the chameleon?

Kylie: Wow! There are some unusual animals on this island. I've already seen five different lemurs.
Jack: Let's stop for lunch.
Kylie: But we haven't seen a chameleon yet. They're hard to see because they're camouflaged.
Jack: I know. Have you taken any pictures yet?

Kylie: Yes, I've taken lots of pictures. Look.
Jack: Hey! You've already seen a chameleon. Look at this picture.
Kylie: Where?
Jack: It's on this leaf. It's eating an insect. Can we have lunch now?

2 Match the sentence halves.

1 Kylie has seen	a lots of photographs already.
2 They haven't had	b a chameleon yet.
3 The chameleon is	c camouflaged.
4 Kylie thinks she hasn't seen	d lunch yet.
5 She has taken	e lots of lemurs already.

3 Talk to a friend. Use yet and already in your answers.

1 Have you done your homework yet?
2 Have we finished Unit 5 yet?
3 Have you had your lunch yet?
4 Have you been on the playground yet?

Grammar Stop

Look at yet and already in Activity 1. Then circle the correct word in these sentences:

We usually use yet / already in questions and negative statements.
We usually use yet / already in positive statements.

Workbook page 37

LIVEWORKSHEETS