READING PASSAGE:

How Indians tune into music

Indian music streamers use it to relax at home and tend to have a strong affinity towards the artistes, says a survey by Spotify and Nielsen By Marcia Sekhose

WHY DO INDIANS LISTEN TO MUSIC

Answers varied by age groups, when people were asked why they listen to music, according to the survey findings

MOOD CHANGER
The survey showed that those between 13-17 years of age are more likely to listen to music to influence their mood and pass the time

MOTIVATION
Those between 25-29 years are more likely to listen to music to keep themselves motivated, and help them be productive

FEELING CONNECTED
Respondents above 45 years of age are more likely to listen to a song to learn more about or connect to an artiste

PASSION FOR NEW MUSIC

70% respondents in India prefer listening to artistes/bands that not many have heard of

Are these statements (True) or (False)?

1. People aged more than 17 listen to music to pass the time.	True	False
2. Only the working class listen to music.	True	False
3. Respondents below 45 years like to connect to an artiste.	True	False
4. About 70% of Indians prefer listening to bands with new compositions.	True	False
5. Every Indian listens to music to relax at home.	True	False

Complete the blanks by using the right words

Mood Changer	Motivation	Passion	Affinity to artiste	New music

1. Teen agers who listen to music are grouped into:
2. Those above 45 years who listen to music because of:
3. Those in mid twenties like to listen for getting:
4. Around ¾ of the Indian respondents love to listen due to:
5. Most of the Indians are more interested for:	