CONDITIONALS

A. Match the halves to make conditional sentences.

1. If I were rich	a) I'll drink a glass of white wine with it.
2. If I hadn't eaten so much	b) I may arrive on time.
3. If I had won the competition	c) I wouldn't smoke so much!
4. If I don't miss the train	d) I'd invest in property.
5. If I could swim	e) I can have a shower before the meeting.
6. If I move house	f) I wouldn't feel so sick now!
7. If I hadn't lost the keys	g) I would have got a new sports car!
8. If I arrive on time	h) I would be watching TV by now!
9. If I eat fish for dinner tonight	i) I'll buy an old cottage in the countryside.
10. If I were you	j) I would go to a Greek island.

B. Choose the correct option.

a) If we're/ we would be late for class, our teacher will be / was angry.
b) If we lived/ would live on another planet, we'd see/ we will see the Earth in the sky.
c) If we take / will take a taxi, we'll arrive/ we would arrived sooner.
d) If we don't hurry / won't hurry, we'll be / would be late.
e) The car didn't / doesn't start if you disconnected / disconnect the cable.
f) If we were / are birds, we would be able to / are able to fly.
g) If you don't wear / wouldn't wear your sweater, you'll feel / you felt cold.
h) If I studied / will study harder, I would get / get better marks.
i) Water boiled / boils if you heated / heat it.
j) I'd give / I gave some money to all my friends if I had / would have lots of money.
k) When I felt / feel lonely, I watch/ will watch a comedy movie.

C. Complete the sentence for each situation using the verb given.

a) You are standing very close to the edge of a swimming-pool. You are wearing all your clothes, not a swimming costume. A friend says:
If you (fall in) ...fall in..... , your clothes (get) ...will get..... wet!

b) You are sitting in the classroom on a hot day. You are day-dreaming about going to the beach. You think:
If today (be) ..... a holiday, I (go) ..... to the beach.

c) You can't answer a question in your English book. You ask a friend to help, but she doesn't know the answer. She says:
If I (know) ..... the answer, I (tell) ..... you.

d) You are walking towards the bus-stop with a friend. Suddenly the bus arrives. The bus-stop is far away, but you think there is a chance of catching the bus. You say:
If we (run) ..... , we (catch) ..... it!

e) You are planning to go to the beach tomorrow with some friends. You are not sure about the weather, because it sometimes rains at this time of the year. You arrange to meet tomorrow afternoon and say:
If it (rain) ....., we (go) ..... to the cinema instead.

f) You are very busy, because you have lots of school work, and you also play in two teams. A friend asks you to join a computer club. You say:
If I (have) ..... more free time, I (join) ..... the club.
But it's impossible at the moment because I'm too busy!

g) You are discussing the idea of underwater cities. People are describing the advantages and disadvantages of living under the sea. You say:
If we (live) ..... under the sea, we (eat) ..... fish all the time!

h) You are worried about a test next week. You ask your teacher for some advice. She says:
If you (study) ..... for one hour every day, you (pass) ..... the test.