Last Lebaran holiday I and my family went to my grandparents' house. It is located in a small village on the slope of Mount Lawu. The village is very quiet and the scenery is very beautiful.

One morning, I and my cousins took for a walk in the garden. Suddenly we saw a nest of bees. It was hanging on a mango tree. One of my cousins said, "Let's throw it". All of us agreed with his idea. We took some stones and threw it. The nest broke down into pieces and thousands of bees flew out. They were very angry. The bees chased us. We run as fast as possible. We shouted and shouted for help but there was no one helped us. Fortunately there was a river. Without thinking too long, we jumped into the river. The bees didn't chase us anymore. They flew away.

All of us were very happy because we were safe from bee sting. Since that time we never disturbed any animals.

How to treat a Bee Sting

- Put some distance between you and the bee hive.
- Use a credit card or other hard flat object to scrape the black bee stinger out of your skin if the bee left one.
- Treat the bee sting with a wet aspirin tablet-if you're not allergic to aspirin – wipe it over the bee sting bump.Thisanti inflammatory helps to ease swelling and pain from the bee sting.
- Baking soda or ammonia solution also reduces pain from a bee sting by changing the acidity of the sting site.
- Use a paste of meat tenderizer on the bump. This helps to 'digest' the chemicals in the bee sting that make it so painful.
- Ask your pharmacist for an antihistamine and ibuprofen. These will help stop the sweling, and ease the pain.
- If you have a bee sting allergy your next stop should be a hospital for observation and maybe adrenaline (epinephrine) injection.
