Escuela Técnica Nº3 Dr. Juan B. Terán

Curso: 709

Profesora: Carrizo Inés

A- Read and choose the correct answer. (Leer y seleccionar la respuesta correcta)

Japan is a country in the Pacific Ocean. It has got more than 6,800 islands! Its population is about 127 million, and most of its people live in busy cities. The capital city, Tokyo, has got a lot of skyscrapers, trains and neon signs. Most of the country has got mountains, volcanoes, forests and a lot of wildlife. Japanese people eat a lot of sushi, which has got rice and sometimes fish. Popular sports in Japan are sumo wrestling and baseball.

1. Is Japan in the Pacific Ocean?
   Yes, it is.
2. Is Japan a set of islands?
   _____
3. Are basketball and football popular in Japan?
   _____
4. Is Tokyo the capital city?
   _____
5. Are mountains common in Japan?
   _____
6. Is pasta a popular food in Japan?
   _____

B- Look, read and match. (Observar, leer y unir) skyscrapers

They are colourful. You can see them at night.

This is a popular sport in Japan.

Tourists can see these tall buildings in cities.

This is a Japanese food.

sumo wrestling

sushi

neon signs

Guess What!
In Japanese, Japan's flag is called 'the circle of the sun.'

Glossary

islands: land surrounded by water

million: 1,000,000

skyscrapers: very tall buildings

mountains: very large hills

volcanoes: (sing. volcano) mountains that erupt

forests: places with many trees

C- Read and choose the correct word. (Leer y seleccionar la palabra correcta)

1. My best friend _____lives_____ (+, live) in Pittsburgh.
   He _____ (+, love) baseball.
2. He _____ (+, wear) his blue baseball cap every day. We like the same team!
3. We _____ (+, play) football together in the afternoons. We love sports!
4. Erick _____ (–, criticise) me. He listens to my problems.
5. We _____ (–, argue) either. We are great friends!
6. I sometimes _____ (+, get) jealous of Erick because he's good at everything!
7. But then I _____ (+, remember) that I am lucky to be his friend!