Words in context

1 Complete the text.

clues iceberg search shipwreck sank voyage

The Titanic hit an [1] iceberg on its first [2] _____, in 1912. After just over two and a half hours, it [3] _____ to the bottom of the ocean. Years later, underwater explorers began to [4] _____ for the [5] _____ of the Titanic. Many of the objects they found – clothes, bags, etc. – during their exploration have given them [6] _____ about who the passengers were.

More words

2 Complete the text with the words from page 66.

~~on-board~~ harbor souvenirs deck

Dictionary
Workbook 6
pages 128–135

I'll never forget my first voyage on a passenger ship. The ship was called the Ocean Queen. We were sailing to an island for a short vacation. Once we were [1] on board the crew showed us where we were going to sleep, and took us upstairs to the [2] _____. We stood there and watched the ship sail out of the [3] _____. There was so much to do on the ship! Just before we got to the island, we went to the gift shop to buy [4] _____. I bought a pen, with a ship inside it. When you turn the pen around, the ship begins to move!

3 Complete the sentences with words from Exercises 1 and 2.

1 Sir Francis Drake was an explorer who went on a voyage around the world in 1580.
2 The weather is getting warmer, and all the _____ are melting.
3 How many people were _____ the ship when it _____?
4 Many divers come to Sharm El-Sheikh to _____ for the treasure of the Yolanda.
5 On the last day of our vacation we all went shopping for _____.
6 Our ship left the _____ at 10 o'clock.

LIVEWORKSHEETS