Joe reassured me trust me everything will be fine

However, I wasn't convinced. What Joe was asking me to do was shoplifting! How can that possibly be for a good cause?

I begged No let's reconsider

Unfortunately, everything I said fell into deaf ears. Just as I picked the item Joe instructed me to take, what I saw next made my knees wobble!

what do you think you are doing? boomed a man in a blue uniform

It was a security officer. I had been caught red handed! I turned around to look for my accomplice Joe. He was nowhere to be found. It finally dawned onto me that my best friend had stabbed me in the back!

Let's add punctuation to the dialogues below

only a few metres to go i muttered as i panted in between breaths

I increased my speed with whatever energy I had left. My legs and lungs burned. However, I was determined. I sensed someone behind me. It was my best friend Janice. Despite being best friends, I always believed we had good competitive spirits. Unfortunately, that opinion was going to break in the next few moments. I felt a push and within seconds I was on ground. My knees were badly scrapped and my mind was in a whirl. What just happened?

sorry my friend hissed janice all is fair in love and war

It finally dawned onto me. My best friend stabbed me on my back for a mere shiny piece of metal! My mind was reeling and I was too shocked to move. I did not know what hurt more. My bleeding knees or my heart? From my peripheral vision, I eyed her running through the finish line, beaming from ear to ear!
