Rewrite the following sentences using a causative structure (have/get something done).

1. The company hires an agency to handle its social media marketing.
2. The manager schedules regular maintenance for the office equipment.
3. HR organizes monthly career development workshops.
4. The CEO is restructuring the leadership team.
5. The company is updating its website to improve customer experience.
6. The HR department is implementing a new remote work policy.
7. The company redesigned its logo last year.
8. The IT team fixed a major security issue last week.
9. The manager arranged a leadership training session for new employees.
10. The organization was renovating the main office when the employees returned.
11. The marketing department was testing new advertising strategies.
12. The management was reviewing employee performance reports.
13. The company has introduced new flexible work policies.
14. The CEO has approved the new incentive plan.
15. HR has replaced the old attendance system.
16. The company had outsourced customer service before launching the new product.
17. The IT department had installed security updates before the cyberattack.
18. The leadership team had redesigned the onboarding process before hiring new employees.
19. The company will upgrade its internal communication system.
20. The HR department will introduce a new employee wellness program.
21. The manager will arrange coaching sessions for team leaders.
22. The business will have rebranded its image by the end of the year.
23. The management will have introduced AI-powered tools by next quarter.
24. The company will have replaced all outdated equipment by December.

LIVEWORKSHEETS