Name: _____

Reading Comprehension – Plot

The plot is what happens in a story Think about what happens at the beginning, middle and end. Then think about the story problem and how it is solved.

Instructions: Read the story. Match each picture to the part of the story it shows.

Ling went to her new school for the first time. She was afraid. She did not know anyone. But at lunch some children asked her to sit at their table. Ling ate lunch with them. She had fun. Ling sat with her new friends on the bus on my way home. She was not afraid anymore.

1. Beginning ___

2. Middle ___

3. End ____