My home city (Part 1)

What can I tell you about my home city? First of all, I must mention its 1 friendly inhabitants . Everyone smiles and says hello when you meet them. Then there's the 2 .... which you can get everywhere. It's delicious, and really cheap. Four or five times a year there are 3 .... where people celebrate important events with street parties and other fun events. And if you get fed up with the city, you can get a bus into the countryside, where there are lots of 4 .... The hills and mountains there also provide some really 5 ....
