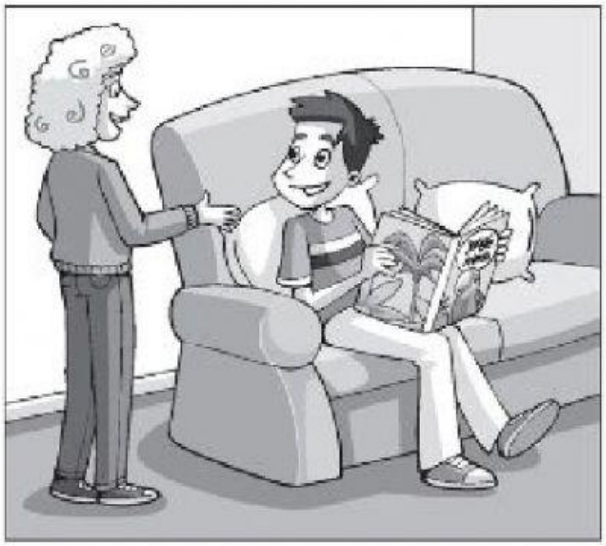
Colegio Santiago Apóstol

ANIMALS AND SKELETONS

I. Read and tick.

Sally is talking to her friend Jack.



Example

Sally: What are you reading Jack?
Jack: A No, I'm not.
(B) A book about animals.
C I'm writing.

Questions

1 Sally: Do you like animals?
Jack: A I haven't got a dog. Sometimes.
B No, thanks.
C I love them.

2 Sally: Which is your favourite animal?
Jack: A Whales are the ugliest.
B I really love tigers.
C I don't like chocolate.

3 Sally: Why do you like them?
Jack: A I think they're the most beautiful animals.
B I don't think so.
C I'd like some chips, please.

4 Sally: Did you go to the zoo last week?
Jack: A Yes, we went on Friday afternoon.
B Yes, we do.
C Yes, every Saturday.

5 Sally: What did you do there?
Jack: A We see the elephants.
B We don't see the lions.
C We saw the kangaroos.

6 Sally: Hmm. Do you want a sandwich?
Jack: A Yes, please. I like sandwiches.
B OK. What colour?
C Yes, a banana.

II. Write the sentences in order.

1 got the | A giraffe has | of neck | same number | bones as a human.

---

2 have got | and legs. | Some monkeys | long arms

---

3 to swim. | A crocodile's | helps it | strong | tail

---

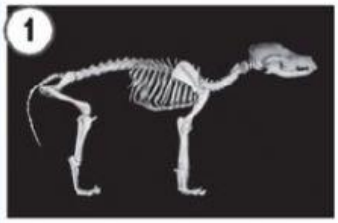
4 is all an | together. | animal's bones | A skeleton

---

5 Crocodiles | eyes on the top | of their heads. | have got big

---

6 the human | bone in | skeleton is | The longest | in the leg.

III. Read and match.


dog horse bat bear whale rabbit