Hi! My name is Harry. I love hanging out with my friends and going rollerblading. I like doing other sports, too. I'm very sporty.

I've got two sisters. My big sister is very tall. She's taller than me. She's a lot older than me, too. She's got long, dark hair. She doesn't live with me. She lives with her mum in Spain. She always stays with us in the holidays. She's very clever and she's studying for her exams at the moment.

My little sister is sometimes a bit naughty and she breaks my toys, but she's very smiley and funny – she makes me laugh sometimes. She's a lot smaller than me. She's got long, blonde hair and she's got a fringe. She doesn't like having a ponytail, so she never has one!

I've got blonde hair, too, but it isn't long! I've got spiky hair at the moment.

Have you got any brothers or sisters? What are they like? What do they look like?

I hope to hear from you soon.

Harry

There are lots of charity shops in our town. A charity shop is a place where you take old toys, clothes, books and other things that you don't want. The shop sells them and gives the money to help people. I usually go to the charity shops every Saturday morning with my Dad. It's fun to look for toys. I often buy model kits or sometimes I find stickers or trading cards for my collections. They're a lot cheaper than new toys. My dad always looks for books. He says they're more expensive in the bigger shops.

He sometimes buys board games for me and my brother. They're much cooler than computer games. My little brother always wants to buy soft toys but Dad never wants to. He always says new soft toys are better than old ones. My brother also likes buying things that are silver or gold, like bracelets and key rings. I don't buy puzzle books from charity shops because they always have writing in them and I never buy felt-tip pens either – they never work!

My favourite place for a holiday is Rio de Janeiro. We were there this summer for a month. It wasn't very hot because it was winter in Brazil.

There was lots to see. On the first Monday, we were at Ipanema beach. There were lots of people surfing in the sea.

Then, on Tuesday, we were on Corcovado mountain to see the big statue at the top. The view was great.

On Wednesday, we were on the underground a lot, visiting lots of places. Some of the underground was really new for the Olympics. The Olympics were in Rio in 2016. We were at the Maracanã football stadium in the afternoon.

On Thursday, we were at Rio zoo. There were lots of elephants and tigers.

On Friday, we were on the train to São Paulo to see our family. It wasn't a high-speed train, so we were on the train for about seven hours. It was so long and boring! We were in São Paulo for three days.
