Coding

Coding is a list of instructions that tells the computer what it should do. Coding is also called computer programming. There are two main program languages that you can use with computers. They are Java or Python. The computer programmer uses coding to make apps, websites, and video games.
Coding is important because it tells computers what to do. .

CLICK the shape next your best answer.

1. What is coding?
   It is Python and Java.
   It is a list that tells a computer what to do.

2. Name the main two types of program languages.
   They are Python and Java.
   They are video games and apps.

3. What is another name for coding?
   Coding is computer programmer.
   Coding is computer programming.

4. Name two things you can make with coding.
   You make recipes and coloring books.
   You make video games and apps.

5. Why is coding important?
   It tells the programmer what to do.
   It tells the computer what to do.

LIVEWORKSHEETS