will or am/is/are going to

1. Circle the correct item.

1) It will/is going to be Friday tomorrow.

2) I'm afraid it won't/isn't going to be sunny tomorrow.

3) She has bought a computer. She will/is going to attend computer courses.

4) Watch out! Your bike will/is going to fall down!

5) I think Nick and Andy will/are going to take part in this competition.

6) Sue has finished her work so she will/is going to have a rest tonight.

7) We have saved enough money so we will/are going to buy a new fridge.

8) Helen will/is going probably to visit us next Saturday.

9) One day people will/are going to live on other planets.

10) It's getting cold. I will/am going to put on my warm sweater.

2. Complete the sentences with will or to be going to.

It_____be Sunday tomorrow and my friends and me _____take part in the Art Festival which takes place in our school every year. Nick has made a model of the plane and he _____exhibit it at the handicraft exhibition. I believe his model _____have a success. Monica _____ sing her new song. She has composed some really good ones, but she hasn't decided yet which song she _____sing. Mike and John _____ do conjuring tricks. They have learnt some very interesting tricks for this festival. Ben and Diana haven't told what they _____to perform, but I think they _____ dance their favourite waltz. As for me, I _____ take the photos of my friends. I hope we _____ make a wonderful wall newspaper to tell everyone about our Art Festival.

LIVEWORKSHEETS