1. Read the following sentences and then choose the appropriate form of the comparative.

    1. Dogs are _____ (small) than elephants.
    2. Swimming is _____ (easy) than ice-skating.
    3. Geography is _____ (interesting) than History.
    4. Films are _____ (good) than sport shows.
    5. Penguins are _____ (nice) than beetles.

2. Read the following sentences and then choose the appropriate form of the superlative.

    1. Paris is _____ (beautiful) place in the world.
    2. Maths is _____ (hard) school subject.
    3. Eddie Redmayne is _____ (good) actor.
    4. The living room is _____ (big) room in my house.
    5. My dad is _____ (funny) person I know.

3. Order the following sentences to form well-written sentences.

is	to	She	be	my	going	teacher

are	We	going	fail	not	to

4. Order the following sentences to form well-written sentences.

1. If you feel sick, you have to/should take a pill.
2. You must/should clean your desk, it's on the rules.
3. She must/should clean her room, because her mom ask her to.
4. We should/have to go to Cancún when we finish classes.
5. Children should/have to go to school.

5. Match the words with the pictures.

cartoon	comic	pollution	beetle	comic strip	whale