Fill in with the correct past simple forms of the verbs in brackets:

Once upon a time, there (be) ___ a little boy named Tim. He (live) ___ in a small house with his family. One sunny morning, Tim (wake up) ___ early and (decide) ___ to go on an adventure. He (put on) ___ his favourite red shoes and (go) ___ outside.

Tim (walk) ___ through the green fields near his house. He (see) ___ butterflies fluttering and (hear) ___ birds singing in the trees. As he (walk) ___, he (find) ___ a shiny rock on the ground. He (pick) ___ it up and (put) ___ it in his pocket.

As Tim (continue) ___ walking, he (see) ___ a big hill in the distance. He (think) ___ it would be fun to climb it and (see) ___ what was on the other side. So, he (climb) ___ and (climb) ___ until he (reach) ___ the top. From there, he (can) ___ see his entire village and even a river sparkling in the sunlight.

After (rest) ___ for a while, Tim (start) ___ to make his way back down the hill. On his way, he (meet) ___ a friendly dog. The dog (wag) ___ its tail and Tim (pet) ___ it. They (become) ___ fast friends.

When Tim finally (reach) ___ home, he (be) ___ tired but happy. He (show) ___ his family the shiny rock he (find) ___ and (tell) ___ them about his adventure. His parents (smile) ___ and (listen) ___ to his story, and his little sister was excited to hear all about the dog he (meet) ___.

That night, as Tim (lay) ___ in bed, he (think) ___ about his exciting day. He (realize) ___ that even though he (not go) ___ very far, he (discover) ___ new things and (make) ___ a new friend. With a smile on his face, he (close) ___ his eyes and (fall) ___ asleep, looking forward to more adventures in the future.

LIVEWORKSHEETS