PAST MODALS OF DEDUCTION

1. Match the sentences (A-F with 1-6)

A) She must have done it.	1. I am sure she didn't see it.
B) She can't have done it.	2. I am sure she didn't do it.
C) She might have done it.	3. I am sure she did it.
D) She must have seen it.	4. It is possible that she saw it.
E) She may have seen it.	5. I am sure she saw it.
F) She couldn't have seen it.	6. It is possible that she did it.

2. Rewrite the sentences:

A) It is possible that Shakespeare wrote this play.

_____

_____

B) I am certain that she stole the money.

_____

_____

C) I am sure she didn't drive that car.

_____

_____

D) I am certain that Mark spoke to her.

_____

_____

E) David certainly didn't read the book.

_____

_____

F) It is possible that he lied.

_____

_____

3. Complete the sentences using the auxiliary and the perfect infinitive.

A)
A: I've finished my work.
B: But you were only half way through when I went to bed. You_____(work) all night long.

B)
A: Have you seen Jack. I told him to be here at 8 and there is no sign of him.
B: He_____(forget). He forgets a lot.
A: Or he_____(get lost). He has never been here before.
B: He_____(get lost). He has got a great navigation in his mobile and he uses it all the time.

LIVEWORKSHEETS
LIVEWORKSHEETS

C)
A: He says that he saw wolves when he was walking across Hyde Park.
B: Nonsense! He_____(see) wolves. There are no wolves in Hyde Park. He _____(see) some grey dogs and he_____(mistake) them for wolves.

D)
A: He had two bottles of Coca Cola and he got drunk.
B: He_____(get) drunk on Coca-Cola. He_____(drink) gin with it.

E)
A: How did Pam get here?
B: I don´t know. She_____(come) by car.
A: She_____(come) by car. She does not drive.
B: Someone_____(give) her a lift or she_____(come) by tram.

LIVEWORKSHEETS
LIVEWORKSHEETS