Name_____ Date_____

LANGUAGE AND USAGE

6 Interrogative Pronouns

What was the detective's first clue?
Which of the clues can be discarded?
Who handles this kind of case?
Whom should we hire to investigate?
Whose is this address book?

A. Write the interrogative pronoun in each sentence.

1. Whom should we call first? _____
2. Who located the owner of the mansion? _____
3. Which of the alarms were disconnected? _____
4. Whose was the helicopter on the roof? _____
5. What is the official explanation? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Write who, whom, whose, or who's to complete each sentence.

6. _____ investigating this mystery?
7. _____ will the detective ask for help?
8. _____ did the detective question?
9. _____ has an alibi?
10. _____ found this evidence?
11. _____ are the tools in the living room?
12. _____ were the fingerprints on the window?
13. _____ are the footprints in the back yard?
14. _____ noticed the empty cabinet?
15. _____ did the cook see in the courtyard?
16. _____ witnessed the argument in the library?
17. _____ telling the best story?
18. _____ the chief suspect?

LIVEWORKSHEETS