ADVANCED GRAMMAR TUTORSHIP
PROFESSOR LUIS RUGAMA

NAME: _____

I. Read the situations and complete the sentences. Use the same verbs in each of the sentences but conjugate them correctly according to the conditionals first and second. The sentences can be positive or negative depending on the meaning.

1. My sister is ill. She won't go out.

If my sister wasn't ill, she _____ out.

2. I won't cook for you. I'll be busy at the weekend.

I won't cook for you if I _____ busy at the weekend.

3. Won't he drink anything? He'll be thirsty.

If he _____ anything, he'll be thirsty.

4. I don't have a driving license. I can't drive you there.

If I _____ a driving license, I could drive you there.

5. We'll go to the beach. The weather will be sunny.

We'll go to the beach on condition that the weather _____ sunny.

6. I feel so tired because I don't sleep well.

I _____ so tired if I slept well.

7. I don't know how to do it. I can't help you.

I could help you provided I _____ how to do it.

8. Try this meal. You will like it.

If you _____ this meal, you will like it.

9. Marion is much older than me. I won't marry her.

If Marion _____ much older, I'd marry her.

10. I'll give you this map. You won't get lost.

I'll give you this map in case you _____ lost.

II. Fill in the gaps with the verbs in brackets present/past or with will/won't/would/wouldn't to make first or second conditional sentences.

Terry: Hey, Ray. If you_____(have) time, can you go and pick up Bridget at the station? If she takes the 4 o'clock train, as she said, she_____(arrive) at 5.15.

Ray: I_____(pick) her up if I could, but I have a meeting at 4.30.

Terry: Can't you postpone it? You are the boss after all.

Ray: Yes, but I'm meeting some important clients, and it wouldn't look serious if a few hours before the meeting I_____(tell) them that I have to put it off. And the meeting is important. I'll make quite a lot of money if everything_____(go) well. Why don't you pick her up?

Terry: I would pick her up if my car _____ (not be) at the garage. It's been there for days, and unless there's a miracle, they _____ (not repair) it today. Something is broken and they won't be able to fix it until they _____ (find) the spare part they need.

Ray: That's unlucky. Well, do you think Bridget_____(get) angry if nobody goes to the station to pick her up?

Terry: Well, if it were me, I_____ (not get) angry.

LIVEWORKSHEETS