Read the story. Then answer the questions.

Today was Nora's first day of second grade. She rode the school bus with her brother and sister. When she got to school, she walked to her classroom. Her new teacher's name is Miss Carles. She is very nice. She let everyone pick their own seats! Then she asked the class to make name tags. The rest of the day was filled with games. The games helped the class learn about each other. At the end of the day, Miss Carles read a story about new friends. Nora can't wait for tomorrow!

1. Why was today special?
   a. It was Nora's birthday.
   b. It was Nora's first day of second grade.
   c. It was Nora's first day of summer.
2. Who is Miss Carles?
   a. Nora's second grade teacher
   b. Nora's music teacher
   c. Nora's mom

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Nora thinks that Miss Carles is…

a. very tall

b. smart

c. very nice

4. Did the class get to pick their own seats?

a. Yes

b. No

5. What did the games do?

a. Helped students learn math

b. Helped students learn about each other

c. Helped students practice writing

6. What did the class read a story about?

a. Animals

b. Playing outside

c. New friends

7. How does Nora feel about tomorrow?

a. She can't wait.

b. She is sad.

c. She is scared.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Read the story. Then answer the questions.

Tim has a best friend named Mia. They do everything together! They both love to play on the swings at the park. Mia pushes Tim to go higher and higher! Sometimes, they draw pictures with chalk or play hide an d seek. Mia always finds the best hiding spots. Tim thinks Mia is the best because she listens to his stories. They laugh a lot and help each other when one of them is sad. Tim can't imagine a day without playing with Mia!

1. Who is Mia?

_____

2. What do Mia and Tim love to do together?

_____

3. Why does Tim think Mia is the best?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS