Worksheet: The King of Saudi Arabia

A. Multiple Choice Questions

1. King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud was born in:
A) Jeddah B) Riyadh C) Dammam D) Makkah

2. King Salman studied at:
A) The Islamic University of Madinah B) Umm Al-Qura University C) The Princes' School in Riyadh D) King Saud University

3. King Salman became the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques in:
A) 2012 B) 2013 C) 2014 D) 2015

4. Before becoming King, Salman served as:
A) Minister of Education B) Governor of Riyadh C) Minister of Health D) Mayor of Makkah

5. Riyadh developed into a major urban metropolis mainly because of:
A) The Red Crescent B) The Prince's Prize C) Prince Salman's leadership and investment D) Foreign investment

B. Fill in the Blanks

1. King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud was born on _____.

2. He was appointed Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia on _____.

3. King Salman served as the Emir of Riyadh starting in _____.

4. Riyadh is now considered one of the _____ cities in the world.

5. King Salman received honorary doctorates from the Islamic University of Madinah and _____.

C. True or False

1. King Salman became the King of Saudi Arabia in 2012. _____

2. He served as Governor of Riyadh for more than 40 years. _____

3. King Salman worked with many humanitarian organizations. _____

4. The King was never involved in education or science. _____

5. King Salman received awards from several countries including France and Morocco. _____

D. Discussion Questions (Optional)

1. What do you think makes King Salman an important leader?

2. How did his work as Governor of Riyadh influence the city's development?

LIVEWORKSHEETS