Desiderius Erasmus was born in Rotterdam in Holland, in 1466 or 1469 – we don't know exactly when. His mother and father died when he was 15 years old. He went to school in Holland, where he was a very good student of Latin. When he finished school he studied at the University of Paris. Later he worked as a teacher there for some years. After that he went to England and he was a professor at Cambridge University. When he was in England he made many friends including King Henry VIII.

After that Erasmus travelled all over Europe and lived and worked at universities in many different countries. He studied Greek, and he wrote many books including famous editions of the Bible in Latin and Greek. Erasmus died in Switzerland on 12th July 1536. 450 years later the Erasmus programme, where students can study at universities in other countries, was started.

What did people all over the world do last Sunday?

Write your blog for our history website

Last Sunday I got up at 9.30 in the morning. I had a cup of coffee and read the Sunday newspaper. Then I made breakfast. We had eggs and bacon. We always have a big breakfast on Sunday, but then we don't have lunch.

In the afternoon the weather was beautiful, and we went for a long walk in the park.

In the evening when our son was in bed my husband and I made dinner together. Then we talked about our day and laughed a lot. We went to bed early because we were tired, and we start work early on Monday.
