Hi Magda! It's my birthday next Saturday and I really hope you can come to my party. It's at my house and starts at 5 pm. We'll have a buffet, so don't worry about dinner. And of course, there'll be a big birthday cake! My parents have booked a DJ, so there will be lots of great music and dancing! Can you come? Paul

1 Why did Paul write to Magda?
- A To ask her about her birthday.
- B To invite her to a party.
- C To offer to help her make a cake.

Thailand's Loy Krathong Festival

Loy Krathong is an annual festival. It is celebrated during the full moon in the twelfth month of the Thai lunar calendar, which is usually in November. In the festival, small baskets made out of leaves float down the river. The baskets contain a traditional Thai sweet dessert or a coin as a present to the spirits, as well as a candle. Seeing thousands of little baskets with candles floating down the river is an amazing experience!

2 The coins are
- A thrown into the river.
- B used to pay for the baskets.
- C given as a gift for the spirits.

New message

Hi Matt,

Today was Thanksgiving in the United States. It's celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November, so the date is different every year.

Our whole family got together at our house and had a huge meal – me, my parents, my grandparents, and three of my cousins. We ate so much! We spent the day together and had a great time.

I'll send you some pictures later.

Julie

4 What does Julie explain in her email?
- A What she and her family did for Thanksgiving.
- B Where the name 'Thanksgiving' comes from.
- C Why people celebrate Thanksgiving in the USA.
