Quiz 1

Fill in the gaps with active vocabulary from Unit 1

1. We must identify and e_____ the l____-_____ p_____ and biases that have hindered ambitious climate policy that reflects the scale of the crisis.
2. Many nations have m_____ huge s_____ in decoupling emissions from economic output but much more progress is still needed.
3. This issue of climate change needs to be addressed in an i_____ manner taking into account the complex influences from different sectors.
4. Respect for the environment and future generations are u_____ a_____ values that should guide decision making.
5. This agreement seeks to establish a f_____ of reference for countries to align their domestic climate plans with the Paris Agreement goals.
6. Our tendency to only consider those similar to ourselves exemplifies the concept of i_-_____ f_____ that must be overcome to solve shared global problems.
7. Reckless deregulation could t_____ an environmental crisis with devastating economic and human impacts.
8. Careful consideration of all perspectives is of u_____ importance for developing comprehensive solutions to complex global problems.
9. According to the principle of free prior informed consent, i_____ p_____ have the right to determine what happens on their ancestral lands.
10. The movement has shown an u_____ commitment to hold leaders accountable to ambitious climate targets.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. Government subsidies and incentives aim to c_____ and r_____ private sector programs that are working to develop renewable resources.
12. When you gain direct experience of issues like rising sea levels or species extinction it forms new n_____ p_____ in your brain that strengthen our commitment to urgent climate action.
13. The lack of a clear well-defined a_____ and s_____ has hindered greater cooperation between nations in the past but maybe this framework can help strengthen coordination.

LIVEWORKSHEETS