Discovery Activity — Comparatives (A2)

Read the examples and understand them.

1) Mount Everest is the highest mountain in the world.
2) This restaurant is the most expensive in the city.
3) My dog is the fastest in the neighborhood.
4) That movie is the most interesting of all.
5) Today is the coldest day of the week.
6) She is the most beautiful person I know.

Guided questions (discover the pattern)

1. Read the sentences again. How many things are we comparing in each sentence?

Two	Three or more

2. What do we add to the end of short adjectives to make superlatives? _____

3. What do we put before long adjectives? _____

4. Which word do we use before the superlative words? _____

5. Which word is the superlative form of good? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS