TECHNOLOGY TALKS: Interview with Joanna Ramos

Multiple-Choice Questions (Page 83)

1. Where is Kaito from?

A. Miami
B. Tokyo
C. Mexico City
D. New York

2. What does Kaito think about computers?

A. They help people
B. They are a problem
C. They are funny
D. They don't work well

3. According to Kaito, what can robots do?

A. Nothing useful
B. Only cook
C. Many jobs people do
D. Only build cars

4. What does Joanna Ramos say about computers?

A. Computers make people
B. People make computers
C. Computers don't work hard
D. Robots create computers

5. What is Ruby's main argument?

A. Computers are expensive
B. Computers have feelings
C. Computers do not have feelings
D. Computers are smarter than people

6. Why does Ruby think feelings are important?

A. Because feelings help computers work
B. Because workers like teachers and doctors need feelings
C. Because robots can't learn feelings
D. Because feelings are not important

7. What job does Ruby NOT like the idea of robots doing?

A. Cooks
B. Drivers
C. Doctors
D. Teachers

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. Where is Ruby from?

A. Miami
B. Tokyo
C. Mexico City
D. Toronto

9. What does Arturo say about computers?

A. They are expensive
B. Companies pay computers too much
C. Computers are cheap
D. Computers have feelings

10. What does Arturo agree with Ruby about?

A. Robots can be sad
B. Computers don't have feelings
C. Computers are better teachers
D. Robots work slowly

11. According to Arturo, what does Joanna say about computers?

A. "They are not useful."
B. "They don't work hard."
C. "They are taking some of our jobs."
D. "They can't make cars."

12. What does Arturo think about computers taking jobs?

A. It is a big problem
B. It is not a problem
C. It is very dangerous
D. It is a crime

13. Read the ideas from Joanna's interview in exercise 1C. Then write a comment. GIVE YOUR OPINION about computers and jobs. QUOTE some of Joanna's words.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS