Modal Verbs

REMEMBER

Modal verbs are helping verbs that express certain conditions.

Some examples of modal verbs are can, could, may, might, must, should, will, and would.

Write the modal verb that matches each condition.

ability	past ability or request	possibility giving/request permission	advice or expectation
obligation, necessity or near certainty	possibility	conditions or super formal requests	future action

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Modal Verbs

REMEMBER

Modal verbs are helping verbs that express certain conditions.

Some examples of modal verbs are can, could, may, might, must, should, will, and would.

Write the modal verb that best completes the sentence.

___ I borrow your map of London?

You _____ rehearse more, or the concert will be a disaster.

You _____ take my advice and brush your teeth after every meal.

If Julia were embarrassed, she _____ be blushing.

Kenny _____ do long division before any of his classmates learned how.

The vacuum cleaner _____ be in the basement, but I'm not sure.

_____ you speak English?

I _____ travel to Europe this summer.

LIVEWORKSHEETS