SAM: Oh no, my laptop just _____ up again. ¿Do you know why it does that, Karen?

KAREN: I wonder if you need to clean up _____ and stuff. You can _____ to do that. I use one, though I can't remember how much it was. I wasn't expensive.

SAM: Technology is great when it works, but when it doesn't, it _____ usually because I have no idea what to do.

KAREN:Yeah, I don't know what I'd do without my laptop, though. If I had to work from my office all the time, I'd hate it. I hate working at a _____. Do you know what I mean?

SAM: Oh yeah, though, I guess it's not always good to _____ with you everywhere. Sometimes I feel pressuered to check my work e-mail even when it's my _____, and it´s kind of addictive. You end up checking messages late at night and everything.

KAREN: I know what you mean, but it's nice to be flexible, leave work early, do work at home, do you know what I'm saying?

SAM: Maybe. On the other hand, it's probably better to separate work from your free time. I mean it's like when you hang out with a friend and they're texting all the time. You're trying to have a conversation. It's really _____.

KAREN: I don't know, it doesn't bother me. I can text and listen at the same time.

SAM: Really? So my laptp is _____ again. So, can you remember which program you used? I'll look it up.

KAREN: Type in "clean up my computer"

SAM: OK. So, yeah, I have another friend and she like, always has her _____ on, listenig to music on her tablet. And I'm like "Take them off!"

KAREN: Well it's better than playing music out loud. Now that's annoying.
