Read the text carefully:

Sarah woke up and looked outside. The ground was completely white, and icicles hung from the roof. She quickly put on her warmest jacket, thick gloves, and a woolen scarf before heading out. Children were building snowmen in the park, and she could see her breath in the air.

At school, her friend Tom was shivering. "I forgot my coat at home," he said quietly, rubbing his arms. Sarah noticed his lips looked slightly blue. Without hesitation, she shared her extra scarf with him. Tom's face lit up with a grateful smile.

Read the Narrative Story:

The Greedy Dog

Once upon a time, there was a hungry dog. He had been searching for food all day. Finally, he found a big piece of meat near a butcher's shop. He was very happy and quickly grabbed it with his mouth.

On his way home, the dog had to cross a bridge over a river. As he walked across the bridge, he looked down into the water. He saw his own reflection, but he thought it was another dog with a piece of meat! The meat in the reflection looked bigger than his own. The greedy dog wanted both pieces of meat. He opened his mouth wide to bark at the other dog and grab that meat too.

But when he opened his mouth, his own piece of meat fell into the river and sank to the bottom. The dog realized his mistake too late. He had lost his meat because of his greed. He went home hungry and sad, with nothing to eat.
