7C – Reading Exercise 4.7

A. Answers with T/F/NG

1. _____ The newspaper mentioned in the passage was first published in 1973.
2. _____ Printing presses in the past operated only during daytime hours.
3. _____ Modern printers are quieter and more efficient than old printing presses.
4. _____ Layout artists in the past relied heavily on computer software to arrange designs.
5. _____ Manual layout designs required a significant amount of time and effort.
6. _____ Modern design software has completely eliminated the need for human designers.
7. _____ In the past, people could easily search for old news articles.
8. _____ Digital storage allows journalists to access large amounts of information quickly.
9. _____ News today is shared faster than it was in the past.
10. _____ The newspaper plans to stop producing printed editions in the future.

B. Answer the questions

1. What main purpose does the passage serve?

   _____

2. How does the author contrast old printing presses with modern printers?

   _____

3. Why were manual layouts described as “hard to change”?

   _____

4. What advantages does digital storage provide compared to physical storage?

   _____

5. According to the passage, what aspect of the newspaper has remained unchanged despite technological advances?

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS