TRAVELLING – TRAINS & CARS

Exercise 1 – complete the sentences

1. You want to know about train times for London. What do you ask?

I'd like some , please. Could you tell me the times of train to London, please?

2. Ask if you can stay on the same train all the way.

Do I need to ?

3. Ask how long the journey is.

How long does it to get there?

4. You decide to go for the day. You want to know how much it costs if you go today and come back later the same day. What do you say at the ticket office?

How is a day ticket?

5. Ask about other tickets to London.

How much is a single/ ticket to London?

How much is a /round ticket to London?

6. How do you ask if you can get anything to eat and drink on the train?

Is there a service on the train?

7. There is a train on the platform and you want to check it's the one you need. What do you ask?

Excuse me, is this the right for London?

8. If the answer is NO, what do you ask?

Which does the train leave from?

9. On the train you see an empty seat. What do you ask the man sitting next to it?

Excuse me, is this seat /taken?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. You would like someone to tell you when you are near the station. What do you ask?

you tell me when we're nearly there, please?

Exercise 2 – cars. Choose the correct answer

1. You are driving and see 2 friends walking home. How do you offer to take them?

Would you like a journey/lift/trip?

2. If someone gives you a lift, how do you tell them when you want to get out?

Could you drop me off/out/on here, please?

3. You have arranged to drive a friend to the airport and will be at her house at 7 o'clock. What do you say?

I'll take/bring/pick you up at 7.

4. You are driving to New York and think you have gone the wrong way. What do you ask someone?

Excuse me, I think I'm wrong/lost/out. Is this the right road to New York?

5. You have a map. What do you ask the person?

Could you show/tell/read me where I am on the map, please?

LIVEWORKSHEETS