AT THE FAIR

Name: Class: Date:

A. Comparatives Drill

Compare the rides using the adjectives in brackets. Don't forget to use "more ... than" or irregular forms.

Example: The roller coaster is more exciting than (exciting) the train ride.

- The roller coaster is _____ (exciting) the carrousel.
- I think the ghost train is _____ (frightening) the bumper cars.
- The Ferris wheel is _____ (boring) the wave swinger.
- Bumper cars are _____ (good) the train ride.
- The hall of mirrors is _____ (funny) the ghost train.

B. Dialogue: Expressing Opinions

Circle the correct option to complete the dialogue.

Sue: Look! The carnival is in town. (1) Let's / Why go there.

Tom: Great idea! I love fun fairs. What do you (2) think / agree about the roller coaster?

Sue: Oh, no! I (3) hate / like it. It is too (4) dull / terrifying.

Tom: Really? I (5) disagree / agree with you. I think it is fantastic.

Sue: I prefer the carrousel. It is (6) more dangerous / safer than the roller coaster.

C. Role Play - 'Buying Tokens'

Fill in the blanks and act it out with a partner.

Ticket Seller: Hello! Welcome to the Fun Fair.

You: Hi! (1) _____ is a token?

Ticket Seller: One token is 20 Liras.

You: Okay. (2) _____ time does the fair close?

Ticket Seller: It closes at 10 p.m.

You: Great. Can I have 5 (3) _____, please?

Ticket Seller: Here you are. Enjoy the rides!

You: Thanks. I want to ride the (4) _____ first because it is amazing!

WESTERN Language Academy

LIVEWORKSHEETS