PART 1. GAP FILLING

1. The student _____ won the scholarship is my close friend.
2. This is the book _____ I told you about yesterday.
3. The professor _____research focuses on AI will give a talk today.
4. The city _____ I was born has changed a lot.
5. She still remembers the day _____she first met her supervisor.

PART 2. MULTIPLE CHOICE

1. The laptop ___ I bought last week has already broken.
   A. who B. whose C. which D. where
2. Mr. Brown, ___ is the head of the department, will retire next year.
   A. that B. who C. whose D. which
3. This is the reason ___ many students struggle with academic writing.
   A. which B. where C. why D. who
4. The students ___ assignments were late were warned by the lecturer.
   A. who B. whom C. whose D. which
5. The room ___ we had the seminar was too small.
   A. which B. where C. when D. who

PART 3. MATCHING

1. The article	a. who guided us throughout the project
1. The lecturer	b. whose results surprised everyone
1. The experiment	c. that was published last year
1. The students	d. who participated in the study

PART 4. DRAG & DROP

1. The researcher _____ paper won the award is from our university.
2. The tool _____ helps students paraphrase effectively is widely used.
3. The assistant _____ explained the task was very patient.

PART 5. SENTENCE REWRITING

1. This is the report. It was submitted yesterday.
   → This is the report _____.
2. I met a student. Her thesis focuses on academic vocabulary.
   → I met a student _____.
3. The classroom was noisy. We had the discussion there.
   → The classroom _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS