

SWIM (pages 14 to 16)

Read and order the sentences in chronological order.

- a. After five or six minutes from the first roll, the ship was swinging heavily from side to side.
- b. He asked the purser if he knew whether the captain had already made his guess at the day's run.
- c. Some passengers left their meal and went straight towards their rooms, pretending they weren't afraid.
- d. It was a beautiful morning and all the passengers decided to go onto the sundeck to enjoy the good weather.
- e. They studied the weather and a lot of other things to predict how many kilometres the ship would cover until midday the following day.
- f. Some others decided to be brave and stayed in the dining room.
- g. The captain had a little meeting with the second officer at four o'clock in the afternoon.
- h. The purser didn't give him much information.
- i. When the eating was over and the coffee had been served, Mr Botibol stood up and sat next to the purser.
- j. When the passengers were having dinner, the ship started rolling gently again.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

