New Year's is one of the most celebrated holidays in the world. Every year, people from around the globe come together to celebrate the start of a new year and begin their resolutions for the next twelve months.

On New Year's Eve (December 31st), people throw parties and hold fireworks displays to welcome in the New Year. During these festivities, friends and families share a toast with champagne or sparkling cider, make resolutions, and tell each other their hopes for the coming year.

In some cultures, specific foods are eaten during the celebration of New Year's. For example, in Spain, they eat twelve grapes at midnight to bring good luck - one grape for each month of the new year! In Japan, temple bells are rung 108 times as part of a Buddhist tradition called Joya no Kane.

No matter how it is celebrated, New Year's is always an exciting time full of hope and possibility. As the clock strikes 12:00 am on January 1st, everyone cheers for the start of a new year and the opportunities that come with it.

Read and select.

~~ALWAYS~~ - EYES - FEEL - CHANGE - WALKING

When I look into your _____

I can see a love restrained

But darlin' when I hold you

Don't you know I _____the same?

Nothin' lasts forever

And we both know hearts can _____

And it's hard to hold a candle

In the cold November rain

We've been through this such a long long time

Just tryin' to kill the pain, ooh yeah

Love is ~~always~~ coming, love is always going

No one's really sure who's lettin' go today

_____ away

If we could take the time to lay it on the line
I could rest my head just knowin' that you were mine
All mine.
