Gerunds & Infinitives – Meaning Change Verbs

Name: _____

Choose between gerund or infinitive and rewrite each sentence using the verb in brackets. Do not change the meaning of the original sentence.

1. Rosemary didn't call her mom yesterday. It completely slipped her mind.
   (forget)

_____

_____

2. I told him the truth, and now I feel bad about it.
   (regret)

_____

_____

3. He made an effort to open the window, but it was stuck.
   (try)

_____

_____

4. She smoked for ten years, but she doesn't smoke anymore.
   (stop)

_____

_____

5. I met her when I was in school, and I clearly remember it.
   (remember)

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. He didn't intend to offend you.
(mean)

7. I have no memory of locking the door last night.
(forget)

8. She paused her work because she wanted to answer the phone.
(stop)

9. Being a pilot involves taking a lot of responsibility.
(mean)

10. I experimented with waking up earlier to feel more productive.
(try)

11. Don't forget to pay the electricity bill. It's urgent.
(remember)

12. We are sorry to inform you that your flight has been cancelled.
(regret)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

13. I called her, but now I don't remember doing it.
(forget)

14. He left his job and now he feels it was a mistake.
(regret)

15. She was driving and paused in order to take a photo.
(stop)

LIVEWORKSHEETS