A winter surprise

One day in winter, Richard was walking through a busy street in his town. The street was white with snow and people were carrying large shopping bags. Richard was excited. It was the last day of school and now he was on his winter holidays.

Then, as he was walking in the snow, he kicked something. He put his hand deep into the snow and pulled out a small black bag. It was full of money! "Whose is this?" Richard thought.

Then, Richard saw a man in an expensive coat. He was searching for something and he looked really worried. Richard looked at the money again. He thought about all the computer games he could buy with it.

In the end, Richard decided to do the right thing. He ran up to the man. 'Excuse me, have you lost something?' he asked. The man looked surprised and said, 'Yes, I've lost a small black bag. Have you seen it?' Richard gave the bag to the man. 'Thank you so much,' the man said and Richard started walking away.

'Wait a minute,' the man shouted. Then, he took half of the money out of the bag and put it into Richard's hands. Richard thanked the man and raced to the restaurant where his parents worked. He couldn't wait to tell them his good news!
