Thursday 3.46pm

How are you, Mum? I miss you so much. We are not going anywhere this morning. We are staying at the hotel, but everybody is busy. They are enjoying themselves. Joan and Naomi are swimming. George is still having breakfast. Nyoman is doing an exercise at the hotel gym. I am at the swimming pool right now, but I'm not swimming. I'm reading a comic. I'm too tired to do anything, I guess. We will leave the hotel at eleven. Oh, I can't wait to see you soon, mum.

Big hug,

Jenny

My Family and I Are Spending Our Holiday

My family and I spend our holiday in the garden. We are not preparing the party but we are gardening. My mother is holding a pair of grass shears. She is cutting the leaves. My brother is holding a watering can. He is watering the flowers and plants. While my father is holding a shovel, he is digging the ground to plant some seeds. Meanwhile he is digging, there are worms wiggling on the ground. There are also beautiful butterflies. They are drinking nectar from the flowers.
