I can hear seagulls fighting over a stray chip
It smells like seaweed fishy and strong
I can hear wave after wave crashing relentlessly
It feels like wind whipping my hair and blown sand burning my skin
I see a deserted beach in the middle of the storm

Now write your own poem describing an island using either

It smells like		I can smell
It tastes like		I can taste
It sounds like	OR	I can hear
It feels like		I can feel
It looks like		I can see
