Name: ..... Class: ..... Date: .....

Questions 14-21

You will hear a radio talk about holidays in Northumberland.
For each question, fill the missing information in the numbered space with no more than five words.

Holidays in Northumberland

Good morning! This morning on 'Holiday Time' I want to tell you about the cycling trip I took recently to Northumberland in the north of England. Before I went I read a book by Peter Green whose title is (14)_____, which I found really useful when planning my route.

Northumberland is a beautiful area of England and perfect for cycling. There is very little traffic on the roads and plenty to see and do. For example, (15)_____? More of them are open to the public here than in any other part of the country. While I was there I actually stayed in a flat in a castle, but there are many hotels, (16)_____ places to choose from. In the summer it is important (17)_____, but I recommend going in the spring, as it is not so difficult to find somewhere to stay at that time of the year. You will find that some places are closed in winter.

Most of the small towns in the area have cycling centres where you can hire a bicycle. (18)_____ will cost thirty-five pounds, two weeks will be (19)_____. There is also a deposit of fifty pounds, which you get back when you return the bicycle.

Try to plan your holiday when there is a local event or festival happening. I went in June and was lucky enough to go to a festival of local food. Every August there's an (20)_____, but you'll find something going on in almost every month of the year.

Ring the Northumberland National Park if you're interested in finding out about their activities – they have a programme of guided walks, (21)_____. Ring them on double eight double 0 four six.

LIVEWORKSHEETS