It's Review Time!

A Circle the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. Mary lives in Houston, and so lives / does Jan.
2. Doug moved to Florida. So / Neither did his brother.
3. Mia hasn't gotten married. Her sister has too / hasn't either.
4. My friends play tennis, but / so I don't.
5. I often stay up late, but she does / doesn't.
6. Dan enjoys traveling, and I do so / too.
7. I don't like peanuts. My husband doesn't neither / either.

B Combine each pair of sentences. Use an addition with so, too, neither, not either, or but. There is one example.

1. I speak Spanish. My brother speaks Spanish. (too)

   I speak Spanish, and my brother does too.

2. I can't speak Russian. My brother can't speak Russian. (neither)

3. Jaime lives in Chicago. His brother lives Chicago. (so)

4. Chen doesn't play tennis. His sister plays tennis. (but)

5. Diego doesn't eat meat. Lila doesn't eat meat. (either)

C There are eight mistakes in the use of rejoinders. Rewrite them in their correct way in the box. The first one is done for you.

and so do I

My friend Alicia and I have a lot in common. She comes from Los Angeles, and so I do. She speaks Spanish. I speak too. Her parents are both teachers, and mine do too. She doesn't have any brothers or sisters. Either do I. There are some differences, too. Alicia is very reserved, but I am. I like to talk about my feelings and say what's on my mind. Alicia doesn't like sports, but I don't. I'm on several school teams, and she isn't. I think our differences make things more interesting, and so do Alicia!

LIVEWORKSHEETS