CASE FILE: THE VANISHING CHEF

SCORE 05 POINTS (0.5 pts each)

Instructions: Read each statement regarding the grammar used in the Julian case. Circle T (True) or F (False).

1. In the sentence "Julian was cooking when the lights went out," we use Past Continuous for an action that was interrupted by a shorter event.

   T / F

2. The structure "Julian had been working for 12 hours" is an example of Past Perfect Simple.

   T / F

3. In the phrase "The man had left before the police arrived," the man's departure happened after the police got there.

   T / F

4. We use Past Continuous (e.g., "It was raining") to describe the background atmosphere or "setting the scene" of a story.

   T / F

5. In the sentence "Julian had never broken a rule," we use Past Perfect to talk about a life experience that happened before the night of the crime.

   T / F

6. In the sentence "While we were examining the floor, we found a key," the Past Simple (found) represents the longer, ongoing action.

   T / F

7. The Past Perfect Continuous (had been planning) is used to emphasize the duration or "how long" an action had been happening before a point in the past.

   T / F

8. "The owner opened the safe" uses Past Simple because it is a completed, specific action in the sequence of the story.

   T / F

9. The difference between "he had worked" and "he had been working" is that the second one puts more focus on the process and effort.

   T / F

10. If we say "Julian was disappearing when we arrived," it means he was already gone and the kitchen was empty.

    T / F
