Predicate Adjective or Predicate Nominative?

To tell if the subject complement is a Predicate Adjective or Predicate Nominative follow these steps:

- Step 1: Identify the Subject.
- Step 2: Identify the Linking Verb.
- Step 3: Identify the Subject Complement
- Step 4: Take the Subject complement and ask: "Is it a name (noun or pronoun)?"

If the answer is "yes", it is a predicate Nominative.

If the answer is "no", it is a predicate adjective.

Question 9

Differentiate between Predicate Adjectives and Predicate Nominatives by Writing PA or PN in the boxes provided.

9.1. The company director is a lazy man.

9.2. The rose smells sweet.

9.3. In 2020, the Game of the Year was The Last of Us Part Two.

9.4. The new teacher is he.

9.5. One of the most famous buildings is the Burj Khalifa.

9.6. Did Amer seem worried before the quiz?

9.7. The line outside the canteen was short.

9.8. The first Arab astronaut was a UAE citizen.

9.9. Everyone was energetic after a day at the pool.

9.10. The bus was late.

LIVEWORKSHEETS