

JANE GOODALL

These teenagers are talking about Jane Goodall because they are preparing a presentation.
COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE.

- B: _____ ?
G: Jane Goodall is a British primatologist.
B: _____ ?
G: A primatologist studies primates.
B: And _____ ?
G: They are monkeys and apes.
B: _____ ?
G: Jane is famous because of her work with chimpanzees in Africa.
B: _____ ?
G: She became interested in primates when she was a young girl.
B: _____ that her father gave her when she was very little?
G: It was a stuffed chimpanzee toy that she named Jubilee.
B: _____ ?
G: She went to Africa for the first time when she was 23 years old.

COMPLETE THE INFORMATION THE BOY FOUND USING THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.

In 1957, she _____ (to visit) a friend in Kenya. During this time, she _____ (to fall) in love with the continent and _____ (to meet) a famous British archaeologist, Dr. Louis Leakey. He _____ (to give) her an opportunity that would impact the next forty years of her life.

Dr. Leakey _____ (to offer) her a job studying the behaviors of wild chimpanzees in Gombe Stream National Park in Tanzania, a country in East Africa below the equator. There _____ (not to be) evidence of studies to chimps in the wild at that moment. Jane _____ (to be) 26 and had not even attended college. Many people _____ (not to be) sure that Dr. Leakey's decision was the right one because she was too young

